PRESS RELEASE

JOURNEY THROUGH TIME
Amidst Centuries of Culture and Commerce

Malacca, Malaysia: Guests staying at The Majestic Malacca can relive history through a fascinating guided historical walk offered complimentary to hotel guests. Lead daily by The Majestic Malacca's own resident historian, the informative walk passing prominent historical landmarks of this 600 year-old coastal port, weaving a beguiling journey through an enchanting heritage.

The walk traces a route to Malacca's history, transporting guests back to the 16th century when Malacca was the cosmopolitan city of commerce. It begins along the Malacca River and passes through significant historical landmarks of the city's history such as the Stadthuys, built in 1650 as the official residence of Dutch Governors, the edifice is a fine example of Dutch architecture and preserved in its original structure and form in bright red and The Victorian Fountain that was a gift from Queen Victoria to the Straits Settlements. Other landmarks include St. Paul's Church which was originally a chapel built by Duarte Coelho but was turned by the Dutch into a burial ground for their noble dead and renamed St. Paul's Church from the Portuguese's 'Our Lady Of The Hill' where St. Francis Xavier was enshrined in the open grave in 1553 before being shipped to Goa, India, and Porta De Santiago also known as A Famosa, Malacca's hallmark and perhaps the most photographed subject next to the Stadthuys, was built by the Portuguese in 1511 as a fortress and sustained severe structural damage during the Dutch Invasion, leaving only remains of the fort's entrance today.

THE MAJESTIC MALACCA

The Majestic Malacca is located in the historic seaside city of Malacca in the west coast of Malaysia, approximately 150km south of the capital city of Kuala Lumpur and 260km north of Singapore. Founded in the early 1400s by a Sumatran prince, Malacca grew to become the most important entrepot and gateway to the Spice Islands during the lucrative spice trade becoming so legendary that Portuguese writer Tome Pires quoted, 'He who is Lord of Malacca has his hand on the throat of Venice'. Today, Malacca is a rich mélange of Portuguese, Dutch, British, Chinese, Indian and Malay influences. Cited by UNESCO as a cultural site relevant for its outstanding value to humanity, the city of Malacca join places as unique and diverse as the wilds of East Africa's Serengeti, the Pyramids of Egypt, the Great Barrier Reef in Australia and the baroque cathedrals of Latin America in making up the UNESCO World Heritage List.

The historical walk is complimentary to guests staying at The Majestic Malacca and available daily from 10am and 5pm, except for Wednesdays. The walk duration takes approximately two hours and is not recommended for children aged 5 years and below or toddlers in strollers.

The Majestic Malacca

Located on the banks of the river which in yesteryear teemed with Chinese junks and spice-laden vessels from all over the world, The Majestic Malacca provides a glimpse into the splendid saga of an extraordinary empire in a UNESCO World Heritage site. Steeped in a rich tapestry of multicultural influences reflected in its heritage architecture, diverse lifestyles and eclectic cuisine, this classic hotel is an integral part of Malacca's colourful history. The heart of the hotel is a restored 1920s Straits Settlement mansion complete with its original porcelain tile flooring and teakwood fittings. It has been sympathetically extended to house the 54 guest rooms and suites as well as an award-winning spa that is a reflection of that era, melding luxury, modernity and tradition. www.majesticmalacca.com
